Enduring love, transcendence, a union not registered in official documents but attested to in a vast correspondence full of intensity and love. We still have the record of their correspondence in Beloved Prophet: The Love Letters of Kahlil Gibran and Mary Haskell, and Her Private Journal. In it we find these words of Gibran:

Gibran's Women | Gibran Kahlil Gibran

If Beloved Prophet was comprised of nothing more than letters, it would be a less powerful or significant book. However, the entries from Mary Haskell's journal provide a wealth of insights both into her relationship with the artist-poet and into her own passionate being.
