No Schedules, No ...

This is precisely why work sucks. A ROWE is one remedy (getting rid of the billable hour, timesheets and implementing After Action Reviews are others). Workers having control of their own time is not zero-sum, meaning they gain at their employer's expense. Like all value, it is a win-win. But, again, it takes a change in fundamental beliefs.

Ron Baker's Review of "Why Work Sucks and How To Fix It"

ROWE forces everyone to come up with the most efficient processes to work together as a team; without excellent processes in place, working remotely or at varying times could cause chaos. 3. Why Work Sucks emphasizes not judging others on the time spent at the office, but rather the results their work has created.
